

Nathan McGaughey

Represented by:
Peter Hagan
Abrams Artists Agency
(646) 461-9383
peter.hagan@abramsartny.com

◆ Writing

Out, Out, a 10 minute comedy, written for the 2009 Play in a Day Festival, Bethesda, MD

A crazy, corrupt big city mayor is ousted by two fed-up employees who use her own idiocy to bring her down.

- WINNER: Best Play Overall, Play in a Day Festival
- WINNER: Best Direction, Play in a Day Festival

Butchers, a love story, a comedy/drama

To escape their treacherous home lives and be together, two men turn to horrific acts of violence...and love it.

- Staged Reading/Developmental Workshop - State of Play Theatre, New York, Apr. 2009
- Semi-finalist - HotCity Theatre Greenhouse New Play Festival, St. Louis, MO
- Reading - Ganymede Arts Festival, Washington, D.C., Church St. Theatre, Sept. 2008

Maintenance, a 10 minute drama

At his infant boy's first Christmas, a young father confesses to his father-in-law he has yet to fall in love with his son.

- Source Festival, Washington, D.C., June 2008; Blake Robison, Dir.
- Quilt Play Festival; Berea Quilt Extravaganza, Berea, KY; August 2008
- Selected for the 2008 Spring Short Play Festival, 13th Street Repertory Theatre, New York
- HB Playwrights Theatre, New York, 2007, as part of The Holiday Plays

Fanatics, or The Vampire Hunters Guild of Orlando, Florida: 2nd Charter, a comedy

At the first meeting of their new guild, a dangerous group of misfits and nerds are visited by a stranger seeking their help, who unwittingly brings the group face to face with their enemy.

- Reading - Kennedy Center Page-to-Stage Festival, Washington, D.C., Sept. 2009

Touched, a drama

A prodigal son returns home to find his once moderately religious family pinning their hopes on a faith healing from "The 700 Club" to heal their dying mother.

Turn the Lights Down Low, a 10 minute drama

A newly blind man discovers the relationships he has built through emailing, texting, and Facebook are useless now, forcing him to rediscover the wife in front of him he had pushed away.

What's on TV, a 10 minute comedy/drama

Family and friends watch as their loved one does unspeakable things to win a baby on a reality competition show.

◆ Education and Associations

Winter Playwriting Intensive

Playwright Development Collective, Mentored by Meredith McDonough

Dramatists Guild

Member

8-Week Playwriting Workshop

Primary Stages, Lucy Thurber

Playwriting Seminar

HB Studios, Donna de Matteo

BFA in Musical Theatre, Summa cum Laude,

Missouri State University

Presidential Scholar